Missionary of the Week: Garrett Schlake

After four months of school, I finished my first semester of language school. Now I wait for the results, but most likely I will skip a level past A2 to B1. The scale from "beginner" to "master" goes like this: A1-A2-B1-B2-C1-C2. I just finished A1. One guy who has been faithful throughout this semester is my friend Thomas. A skinny nerd as myself, we meet up often, and it is rewarding to see what God is doing in his life. I believe he one day could be a strong evangelist, especially with how easily he interacts with nonbelieving folks. Every Tuesday evening we have our weekly get together with dinner and Bible Study. We average around 12 students with most coming consistently every week. Recently, two of the French gals in the ministry, Alexandra and Solveig, joined our team to help with ministry planning and their own personal growth. I tried to bring one tradition to France with me and that was my Grandma Jean's Christmas waffles. The French approved. I was a little worried that I would spend Christmas alone in my apartment, but Nathanaël's family was kind enough to host me for both Christmas Eve and Christmas (called Noël in French). Please pray that I make the most of the time that I do have available for ministry, and that God would grant me the energy as well.

This week pray for HUMBOLDT BIBLE CHURCH in Humboldt, Saskatchewan, with Pastor Sean Brandow and his wife Marsha.

Tonight, join us here at the church for a
